TO IT I IN WESTERN RESTURKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1907.

WHOLE NO. 2183 ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1868

≈ CELEBRATE THE FOURTH ≈

Everyone should have enough patriotism to observe the day in some way, and of course you'll want to look dressed-up, especially if you go away from home.

You know what we mean by "dressed-up" a new suit, hat, shoes, neck tie, etc., -not just any old thing, but something up-to-now in style and at the same time possessing wearing qualities that can be absolutely depended upon; and the prices, they are no higher than the cheap grades usually sell for.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

One of the best things about them is that they're higher-priced than others; that's one of the chief reasons for buying them.

They cost us more and you, but they're worth so much more than they cost that we think they're the cheapest clothes made today.

You can always buy lower priced clothes than the Hart-Schaffner & Marx make, we have them for sale ourselves. But if you want the best-well, just drop in any day and we'll show you.

Prices $16.50 to $25.00

Extra Specials--Medium-priced Suits

At $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00

When you come to see these suits we want you to expect to see something out of the ordinary; you'll not be disappointed for we believe them to be the greatest bargains we have ever offered at these prices.

These come in solid colors, faucey worsteds and nobby gray mixtures and pluids, the make-up and the style is the same that you'll expect in higher grade slothing-but the price-there's where you will notice the difference, and it will surprise you. Come and see.

On account of the fact that large numbers of people who visited our store during the three days sale could not be waited on owing to the rush, and who have expressed a desire for another opportunity; and on account of our necessity to reduce the stock still further, we have decided that for

THREE DAYS MORE

Saturday, June 20th; Monday July 1st; Tuesday July 2nd

We will place the ENTIRE STOCK of Dry Goods, Clothing and Merchandise on sale at sacrificing prices, Many lines of merchandise at still lower prices

The heavy selling of the three days sale has left us with many odds and ends, broken lots, etc.

These have all been gotten together and marked at a mere fraction of their value!

We would prefer to sell at a sacrifice rather than carry goods through to fall; therefore it becomes necessary to dispose of our present stock, and this can only be accomplished by a positive, true and genuine reduction in prices. We have marked them down occordingly. Come and see for yourself.

One sure way to get into heaven or a day at least is to do a kind act o some one who does not like you.

The Bibles in a great many houses are so beautiful and costly that the young folks are not permitted to open them.

Who does not like a "good morning" that comes from the heart? It makes the whole day brighter. No matter how coarse the garb of the preaker, the true hearty wish is prized higher than the heartless smile of the most aristocratic and social acquaintance.

True politieness is the corner stone of success, and is one of the most important of human life. It consists of frankness, cordisitity and gestlement toward our fellow creatures. Beautiful in its truth and simplicity, the first that youth should learn and the last that age should forget.

It is one thing to go shout our life work as a sense of stern delve, the stern delve, and another to go about it in a way, that shall make both ourseves and everybody about us happy. To be pleasant is a consumation that lies within the gover of our or of us. To be great a consumation that lies within the gover of our or of us. To be great a continue that it is of the few. There is nothing that sitts or gracefully upon a bright woman as gentleness and breakmenses. A man without either natural or cultivated civility is the most dis-agreeable thing in nature outside of a burdock or a hedge-hog, but a woman without the gift of a gracious and pleasant manner is like the sight of a blossomless stalk in a garden meant to grow roses.

Plenty of work, with good wages and increasing prosperity, are the certain rewards of faithfulness. Let any young man start in life with the determination to put the best he has into the discharge of every duty, and some of the best things of life will eventually become his own.
